

INDICTED
FOR ROBBERYCharles F. Pfister, a Wealthy Milwaukee Man.

NOT PLACED UNDER ARREST

Last Night He Sent His Check for $10,000 as a Bail Bond—Other Indictments at Same Time.

Milwaukee, August 5.—Charles F. Pfister, one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Milwaukee was indicted by a grand jury yesterday, charged with stealing $14,000 belonging to the Wisconsin Rendering company of Milwaukee. Indictments were also returned against John F. Dittmar, formerly supervisor, bribery; George F. Reichert, supervisor, bribery; Barney A. Eaton, state senator, bribery; Frank F. Schultz, formerly newspaper reporter, bribery.

The indictments against Pfister allege that on March 30, 1901, the accused was bailor of $4,000 placed in his hands for the Wisconsin Rendering company to obtain for the company a large contract from the city for the disposing of garbage.

It is charged that the money was not used for the purpose intended and that Pfister fraudulently converted it to his own use.

Pfister is a director of a leading bank, owns a large interest in a big tannery, is proprietor of a large hotel, and owns one of the leading newspapers of Milwaukee.

Mr. Pfister said last night: "The charge is absolutely false and has no foundation whatever."

"About eight years ago F. C. Gross, who was president of the Wisconsin Rendering company, placed money in my hands, and I disbursed it years ago according to his directions."

"More than two years since, the balance was paid over to Mr. Gross' orders. No dissatisfaction was ever expressed to me by any one and this indictment is the first intimation that I ever received from any person that anything remained unsettled, or that any claim whatever existed or was supposed to exist against me."

Mr. Pfister, who has been ill for several days, sent a certified check for $10,000 to the clerk of the court for his appearance when needed.

Last night's indictments make a total of 133 by the present grand jury.

BRUTAL MURDER REVEALED.

Bishop, Pa., Coal Miner Was Found With Head Pounded to Pulp.

Washington, Pa., August 5.—A brutal murder was brought to light at Bishop late last night when the dead body of Joseph Barr, aged 39, a coal miner, was found lying in his room with the skull crushed into a shapeless mass.

The authorities have absolutely no clue to work upon to secure the arrest of the murderer.

Barr had been confined to his bed for two weeks from an accident in the mine.

Last night Mrs. Barr went to the house of a neighbor, leaving her four children playing around the house, and when she returned she found her husband dead, and is now raving crazy. The children knew nothing of the tragedy until the mother returned.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.

One Had Helped Assassinate a City Convict Guard.

Hattiesburg, Miss., August 5.—J. G. Smith, city convict guard, was assassinated yesterday by two negroes of his gang, Wm. Horn and Kid George. Horn escaped but George was captured, together with Ed Lewis, alias Brock, who had struck the shackles from the murderers. They were placed in the city jail after Brock had been brutally whipped to force him to tell where Horn had gone. Last night a mob quietly took the two negroes from the jail and hanged them to a bridge in the glare of an electric light.

OUTRAGES IN MACEDONIA.

Villages Ravaged and Many People Massacred.

Constantinople, August 5.—Despatches from Dairan, Macedonia, tell of fresh outrages on the part of Bulgarian bands and brutal acts committed by Turkish troops in their attempts to punish the marauders and their allies. Twenty-nine Mohammedan peasants were massacred by Bulgarians. Turkish soldiers ravaged two villages where the inhabitants were suspected of showing hospitality to the Bulgarians. Unbearable outrages were committed by Turks and many villagers were killed.

ENVELOPING VLADIVOSTOK.

No Hope for It Unless Peace Is Concluded.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—Despatches received from Manchuria say that the Japanese army is gradually enveloping Vladivostok. The movement of the Japanese troops toward the Russian port shows that evidently the Japanese will be prepared to strike a decisive blow in case the peace negotiations at Portsmouth fail.

BELCHER DEALT IN STOCKS.

Losses of the Mayor of Paterson Now Accounted For.

Paterson, N. J., Aug. 5.—It was speculation in stocks that caused the downfall of Mayor William H. Belcher, of Paterson. Most of the people who knew him have been at a loss to explain what could have become of the sums which he is known to have obtained. The man's life was so free from ordinary vices and his generosity to those in need was such that thousands of persons in Paterson have taken a lenient view of his queer operations on the supposition that he spent his money in secret charity.

FIRE BUG AGAIN.

Set Another Fire in St. Albans Last Night.

St. Albans, Aug. 5.—The alarm of fire from box 52 at 10:30 last night was for a smart blaze in between the partitions of O. W. Campbell's laundry and carpet cleaning plant. The prompt arrival of the department averted a serious fire in a bad nest of old rookeries. The fire was without doubt the work of the fire bug, as it bore all the earmarks of being incendiary.

MUST WIND
UP ITS AFFAIRSPresident Pierce of the Conn.
Loan & Realty Co.

SO REPORTS TO COURT

Assets of Company Have Been Represented to Be More Than an Examination of Books Discloses—A Shrinkage of $400,000.

At an adjourned session of the superior court at Hartford, Conn., Judge Horback presiding, a report of the officers and directors of the Connecticut Loan & Realty company of that city was received Wednesday. President Noble E. Pierce, before submitting the report, explained that the gross assets of the company as shown by the books are $1,181,000 in round numbers, but he had experts go through the books and after the most careful examination they had reduced the assets to $778,000, a shrinkage of about $400,000. He said that pending the disturbed condition of the company, the company has been carrying insurance for shareholders who have not paid their dues. This will add about $6,000 to the assets.

Plans of settlement with shareholders were outlined and further time was asked to consider the claims of certain classes.

Mr. Pierce referred to the meeting of shareholders of classes A. and D. D. on Wednesday and said that if finally a plan cannot be devised to protect them he thought the company would have to go into the hands of a receiver. If it were allowed to be continued under the old charter the stockholders would find that they were paying in more money than they could get out. Mr. Pierce told the court that he thought some definite plan would be evolved by September 1st, and asked that court be adjourned to Thursday, August 31. Judge Horback ordered the report placed on file, and court was adjourned to the date named.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Irvin Robinson seems to be the champion fruit grower in town, having only a small piece of land about 18 rods square, set out to strawberries. He also has picked 237 quarts of currants, and 30 quarts of cherries, 155 quarts of gooseberries, and a nice lot of red and yellow raspberries are just ready to pick. Such fruit as Mr. Robinson has brought to town will find a ready market, as it is perfectly fresh and much more profitable to buy, besides the quality is excellent.

Business at East Barre for Thirteen Years, Will Employ Four Gangs of Men.

The firm of Bianchi Bros., operating the largest granite cutting plant in the town of Barre, has purchased the plant and business of Mutch & Calder of this city. The consideration given is $20,000. The Mutch & Calder plant is located in the north part of the city, on Goldsboro's meadow. It is one of the oldest granite firms in the city, having been established by George Mutch and William T. DEPOSITIONS TAKEN
IN JACKSON CASEState's Attorney's Father Says That He Never Voted at Any Canadian Provincial or Dominion Elections.

Attorney John W. Gordon was in Burlington yesterday to be present in the Burlington city court at the hearing for taking depositions in the quo warranto proceedings against State's Attorney S. Hollister Jackson, brought by Charles A. Phelps, formerly operator for H. R. Leighton & Co., of Boston. The petitioner claims that Jackson is not a citizen of the United States but was born of alien parents in Canada, thereby maintaining that he has no right to hold the office of state's attorney for Washington county. Mr. Jackson avers that although he was born in Canada, his father was an American citizen.

The deposition of Rev. Samuel N. Jackson of Burlington, father of S. Hollister Jackson, was taken first. He stated that his father and mother and his grandfather were born in the United States. His mother was a native of Hinesburg. They moved to Canada, where the witness was born in the town of Broms, in 1838. Rev. Mr. Jackson said he obtained his early education in Canada and pursued his advanced studies in this country, and at the Barre academy, and he also took a course in the medical department of the University of Vermont. He attended a theological seminary in Montreal, and preached in Canada for five years.

He said he had never voted at any of the provincial or dominion elections, but might possibly have voted at a municipal election, he did not recall. He was married in 1866 to the daughter of a British subject at Montreal. He said he had always regarded himself as a citizen of the United States. He moved back to this country before S. Hollister Jackson was 21 years old. Rev. Mr. Jackson said he was not naturalized, as he did not consider it necessary. He did take the freeman's oath.

Col. M. H. Twitchell averred that Mr. Jackson was considered an American citizen during his residence in Canada.

The name of the case, to which some objection was made by Mr. Jackson's counsel, is State of Vermont, on relation of Charles A. Phelps vs. S. Hollister Jackson. The attorneys are Elisha May of St. Johnsbury and John W. Gordon of this city for Mr. Jackson.

RUFEBIAN'S ATTEMPT
WAS THWARTEDMan, Probably a Tramp, Seized Little Twelve Year Old Girl by the Throat at Graniteville Yesterday.

The police and sheriffs of this vicinity are on the lookout for the man, evidently a tramp, who attempted to commit criminal assault on the twelve years old daughter of John Roberts of Graniteville yesterday. The fellow was foiled by the desperate resistance which the girl put up. The girl was berrying not far from the schoolhouse in Upper Graniteville, when she was accosted by the ruffian. He seized her by the throat, but the girl exerted all her strength and tore herself from his grasp. She ran to a nearby house, and the fellow made haste to escape.

Officer McKernan was called upon, but as he was ill, Deputy Cutler of South Barre was appealed to. The officer has not yet arrested the man, but traced him to this city, where he was seen at about midnight last night. The Barre and Montpelier police and the sheriff's department are on the trail. The man is described as being light-complexioned.

Those are a few instances. Otherwise the game was quite interesting to watch. It started off with a lot of base ball fireworks. Lander nearly knocked Dorman with a hot one which Johnny clung to and held to first. Dorman played a brilliant game yesterday, later shutting off an almost sure hit by Kuhns in the seventh, with the bases full. Kuhns singled in the first, the ball going to right just beyond Apperions' reach. Kuhns kept on to second, then to third. Meanwhile the Giants were trying to get the ball settled. It rolled into left field, with Dorman after it. With a perfect throw he nailed Kuhns at the plate. Kuhns never stopped running once during his desperate try.

Plattsburg and the umpire earned a run in the second, when they got after Coombs. Skelley singled to center field. Bottenus was apparently out on being hit by a batted ball, the sphere rolling down to Dorman, who took no chances with the umpire and held the ball. He hit the runner in the back, Skelley going to third. The umpire was bound to call it a safe hit. Stankard held Skelley on third while he felled McDennell's grounder to Ashmore, but Wells broke up the combination with a safe rap, Skelley going in. Cooper struck out and Barberick flied to Shaugnessy.

After that the New Yorkers had their troubles with Coombs' twirling. Although they got another score in the sixth, it was not Jack's fault. Uniac made a wide throw of Cote's attempt, and Cote stole second. Kuhns flied to Apperions, and Skelley, the next man up, swung three times fairly and squarely, but the umpire peg-headed again. The next ball pitched Skelley rapped for a single, and Cote wouldn't help scoring. It was a clear gift on the part of the umpire, as Apperions gathered in Bottenus' fly after a hard run.

But the Giants got after Barberick in the same inning and stowed the game away. Shaugnessy worked him for a pass, and then Uniac did something he hasn't done this year, drive the ball over the fence for a homer, thereby redeeming his error in the same inning. Uniac responded to the plaudits by lifting his bat as gracefully as he could while reprinting around the bases. That tied the score. Apperions rapped out a single and McMahon sent him to second on a neat sacrifice to Barberick. Coombs got too anxious and struck out, but Eaton singled, and Apperions went in with what proved to be the winning score. Stankard closed the inning with a fly to Lander.

The visitors made a great bid to tie the score in the next inning. Wells got a pass. Cooper flied to Apperions, and Barberick pulled one just out of Stankard's reach. Uniac gathered in Lander's attempt, but Cote got five balls and was given his base (the instance where Plattsburg was roasted). With the bases full Kuhns smashed the ball just inside third base. Capt. Dorman made a dive for it and got it just an inch from the ground, thus relieving a strained condition of affairs.

The Giants got two men on bases in the same inning. Kuhns went way beyond the pitcher's box for Ashmore's fly and then dropped it. Barberick took that to heart as he wanted it. The umpire may have taken compassion on Barberick, for at this point he called Dorman's safe bunt a foul. To make sure Dorman planked the ball straight through the infield, and was deuced by McQuark safe, whereat the crowd

BUNCHED HITS
IN THE SIXTHIntercity Won Out From Plattsburg Yesterday.

IN SPITE OF THE UMPIRE

Rankest Exhibition of Official Work Ever
Seen at Intercity Park—Score
3 to 2—Burlington Beat
Out Rutland.

"Bill" Bottenus says that Umpire McQuark means well; but that does not excuse the rankest failure that ever attempted to umpire a Northern league ball game in this city. However, in spite of the umpire's work—yes, really in spite of him—the Giants won out from the tailenders yesterday by the score of 3 to 2.

A dozen errors in judgments on the part of the official might be pointed out, some of which were so palpably poor that the crowd did the undignified thing of hissing. It was not in any one department that McQuark was off, but it was in all, on balls and strikes, fair balls and foul, and on base decisions. Plattsburg got the little end of the bargain once, when McQuark wouldn't give Cote first base until Coombs had given five balls, but that made no difference with the result. McQuark called Shaugnessy out for interference with the catcher, who went out of his way to collide with Shaugnessy. The latter stood in his box and made no attempt to interfere. He didn't know where the ball was, in fact.

As safe a hit as Dorman ever made the umpire called a foul. The ball rolled down the first base line and both Barberick and Wells made a dive for it, knocking it over the line. McQuark declared it a foul, and when the Intercity protested, he came up pompously and pointed at an imaginary spot where Wells and Barberick grabbed for the sphere. If McQuark had stolen Dorman's pants it wouldn't have been a clearer case of robbery.

Those are a few instances. Otherwise the game was quite interesting to watch. It started off with a lot of base ball fireworks. Lander nearly knocked Dorman with a hot one which Johnny clung to and held to first.
